MEMORANDUM

DATE: June 20, 1974

TO: Jeannine Furrer
FROM: Margaret Wilson
SUBJECT: Shipment of May Show Entry

Eleanor Merrill phoned yesterday to request that her weaving piece, Ohio River Piece II, be shipped to Texas, where they will be living in the fall. They are now summering in Vermont, and will not go to Texas by way of Cleveland, so cannot pick up her piece in the fall, plus she doesn't want it destroyed by the Museum. She is most concerned that it not be sent to Texas C.O.D. because there would be nobody there to pay for the freight charges. She said she had talked to Tom about this a week ago Saturday, but, having heard nothing from him, wanted to be sure the shipment had not been made C.O.D.

She asked that we let her know, either by phone or letter, the amount of the freight charges before the piece is shipped. She will then send us a check to cover the freight.

Texas address to which piece should be sent: c/o David Merrill

5 Minutes later:

You might know! I should have waited a bit longer to write this memo! Eleanor Merrill phoned again to say that she had just had a phone call asking her to send her piece to San Francisco for a big weaving show to open July 1st. She said San Francisco had asked that it be shipped "UPS Air", and she asked that you telephone her (instead of writing) to let her know the amount of the freight charges so that she can send us a check, since July 1st is almost upon us.

The San Francisco address is: Steven Foster
